Ceremony of Renewal of Vows

Sister Barbara Schamber:

Sisters, through our public consecration to God as members of the Sisters of Providence, we hope to attain the fullness of our baptismal commitment. Our vows of chastity, poverty, and obedience, freely taken, are our way of embracing a life of love in response to the call of Jesus Christ. Faithful to the charism of our foundress, we seek to be of service to God's people. Today we wish again to publicly affirm your intention of following Christ in religious life as Sisters of Providence.

Jubilarians:

I, _____ wishing to renew my consecration to God and to become the servant of the poor, willingly make anew to God the perpetual vows of chastity, poverty, and obedience, under the authority of the Congregational Leader and according to the Constitutions of the Congregation of the Sisters of Providence.

Response by all present:

Sisters, as your family, friends, associates, and community members, we thank you for who you are and for all you have done so generously in your service for others. May all the good you have caused to happen be returned to you in abundant blessing. With you we offer to God, a prayer of thanks and praise.
